A SLANDERER EXPOSED. The Chicago Tribune is fast loving its | ed to the mayor, easy: "The necessity reputation for hones so truth and fair must be impressed for retremhment in dealing. It recently published an edi- expenditures, in view of the present deterial which was nothing but a pyramid present condition of business and the of falsehood, a remanes of political defa- general installity of the tax-payers and mation. It represents Jefferson Davis the community at large to bear further as "higgling" over the amount the increase of the turdens of taxes and asseements." The New York World Winnebago fair should pay him for his lecture. It also represents the board that invited him as Democrats or Independents. This budget of Broadway and other streets of that city falsehood is exposed by the Rockford as an evidence that the flush times, Journal. Mr. Davis replied, accepting the offer, and agreeing to be Brooklyn. Various causes, such as high on hand. In answer to the other falsehood of the Tribune, the Rockford Journal gives the 'political record of the men who invited Mr. Davis, which shows that Moses Barilett, the president, and old-line Republican, and was a stre; g pplicant for the Rockford postoffice last spring. E. S. Bartholomew, vice- resident, was a War Demoerat. H. F. Kimball, secretary, was an old-line Free-Saller, and lafterward and now a Republican. Borace Brown. tressurer a Republican ever since the organization of the party; never voted for other than a Republican candidate. Lawrence M'Donald, director; old line Republican, but voted for Greeley; he preferred Greeley sober in Grant drunk, and voted accordingly. Lucien Williams, director; always a Republican, and never voted anything else. Hugh Mackey, director: a Republican since the organization of the party. Samuel Derwent, director; always a Republican, but had the independence in vote last fall for General Farnsworth, in preference to Steve Hurlbut. Baltus J. Heagle, director; a Republican of the strictest seat; prefer of Grant drunk to Greeley somer, trays represent New Milford in the Republican county conventious, his loyalty is unquestioned. H. W. Carpenter, director, an uncompromising Republican, is one of the straight-inited kind, but never lets politics interfere with business, nor business with politics, and never mixes them. Hon, S. M. Church, ex-officio have largely exceeded the full amount director. Judge Church may almost be for which the entire crop wer sold, and said to be the father of the Republican instead of making a profit, the planter party of Winnebago county; for several found himself at the end of the year years he was member of the State boar of the public charities; was president of the Grant club during the last campaign To doubt Judge Church's Republicanism is to doubt the sun that shines. This board, then, is composed of eight straighthaired Republicans, one Democrat and one Independent. Yet the Chicago Tribune seeks to convey the idea that they are all Democrats and Independents. and are prestituting their position to make political capital by inviting Jeff Davis to come up into the "Giberalter of Aenublicanism" and convert the people · of Winnebago county to Democracy.

THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC BAILBOAD AND SENATOR JOHNSTON, OF VIR-We invite the attention of our readers to the report of the chamber of commerce which will be found in this issue. The chamber of commerce being desirous to see this great work speedby constructed, have simply pointed on the objectionable feature , to the hill be fore the forty-third congress. They express themselves eatisfied that the bill will be remodeled so as to unite all parties and ad sections in its cardist support. In a word, they have said just what should have been said by friends of the measure, neither a word too little nor too much. If the objectionable feat ures shall be let out, and even-handed justice dealt to all sections, we may proclaim in advance that the entire representation from the southern State will rally as one man in support of the measure. Having chartered and slided two reseis from the north to the Pacific in a princely manner, we shall be loth to believe that any considerable portion of the re-resentatives of the northern States will oppose this act of justice to the south. If any of them shall believe that under the name of a southern road they can be so, buy or deceive the representatives of the southern people int the support of another northern road with a southern name, they will be mudeceived, and there will be (couble-b); trouble. This they should understant. We are gratified, delighted, that the chamber of commerce has not forgotted to do justice to the motives and acid of Senator Johnson, of Virginia, in the premises. We do not doubt but that Senstor Juliustue je au ardent felend of the measure, and that the bill, so changes as to do justice to the scuth, will meet with his comial approval and support. We have wateful scrutinized, and carefully weighted the voter, anatiments of pressed, and action of this distinguished gentleman since he has occupied the posation of a remains in the congress of the United States. Junual by these, we may well be proud of him. Always at his post, cheerful, civil, polite, he is ever
